

Class Will and Prophecy

Washburn High School

June 8, 1964

Class of 1964

- David Ackerman leaves with all his jokes.
Phyllis Ackerman leaves a recording, "Socialism: What It Is, What It Can Do, and Why I Advocate it."
Barbara Adams leaves the boys double-chrissed.
Gayette Addison leaves Monday movies to Mr. Carlson.
Chuck Agan leaves next year's girls in Wahian to anyone lucky enough.
Bonny Anderson leaves a "lived-in" locker to a messy junior.
Charles Anderson leaves happy thoughts to Mr. Blackmur.
Dale Anderson is seen carping the big leagues.
Doreen Anderson leaves whatever can't be smuggled out and sold.
Pam Anderson leaves her many nicknames to any short juniors.
Jackie Anderson bequeaths Mr. Krause a loyal soph to take attendance.
Mike Anderson leaves to find a wife for Mr. Krause.
Jerry Anderson wills his chemistry windows to the art classes.
Ross Anderson is seen "goofing around" in a science lab.
Steve Anderson leaves his nickname "Moose" to Janet Norval.
Tom Anderson leaves his post as soccer goalie to Phil Hanson.
Allan Andrews leaves Miss Peterson a copy of the book, The Life of John Peter Zenger.
Richard Andresen leaves his Honda experience to Lyle Hulsing.
Lou Anquist wills her flags to Pat Draheim.
John Arkell bequeaths his lunches to Rookie.
Jeff Arnold leaves nasty thoughts to Mr. Blackmur.
John Aronson wills all his varsity letters to Brian Love.
Denny Ask will leave anything for the asking.
Merrily Auerbach leaves happily.
Ron Auerbach leaves "love" and (deuces).
Bruce Bachman is seen as head projectionist at the Boulevard.
Todd Bachman would like to leave another Bachman.
Brian Bakk bequeaths the school the name of a reliable company to repair its bells.
Joyce Baldwin leaves her artist's touch to anyone else who can hold a brush.
Rick Ballantine leaves his lucky gym floor number 13 and basket number 1313.
Bruce Barker leaves the cross country skis to Mr. Wold.
Yana Bariss leaves for better things.
Bob Barnett leaves Pete French his football shoes—for $11.
Perry Barsten leaves his basketball shorts to Paul Anderson.
Doug Barthel is seen as general manager of the Chicago White Sox.
Ken Beadell leaves with a Beatle.
Tom Bean leaves anything but himself.
Vince Beaudette leaves the air in all four of Mr. Johnson's car tires.
Dave Beenken leaves singing.
Becky Beetsch leaves her halo.
Tara Belshe doesn't tarry—she leaves!
Dennis Belt leaves jumping for joy.
Don Benden comes just in time to leave.
Ann Bennion sadly leaves the tennis team to the "incompetent juniors."
Mark Benson leaves with Mary.
Mary Benson leaves with Mark.
Karen Berg wills her chemistry unknowns to Ann Mattice.
Joyce Bergenzer leaves shyly.
Brian Bergin is seen doing Candy Striping.
Jim Berlin leaves Mr. Sverdrup's "reviews" designed to "raise everybody's grade."
Sara Bey leaves with Allan.
Judy Bjerke leaves 400 pamphlets Mr. Vakos wouldn't let her pass out.
Marty Bjorklund says, "I leave my ravishing physical loveliness to anyone who can find it!"
Mike Boen leaves the gum under his desk in 311.
Allison Bolduc leaves the hardworking teachers to the juniors.
Judy Bon leaves her suntan.
Donna Bonnicksen leaves the German club's bottles—empty!
Al Brevitz bequeaths an unsharpened 4H pencil to Mr. Flugstad.
Bev Brown leaves best wishes for the building program.
Mary Ann Brown leaves still smiling.
Marsha Bruce bequeaths her tennis racket to Peter Beck.
Fran Bruzek is leaving Washburn's cold lunchroom to Mr. Krause.
Mary Bunce leaves split schedules gladly.
Mary Jane Burdorf leaves study hall to "simple sophomores."
Carol Burkhardt leaves masking tape, wire, and "apple blossoms" to next year's prom committee.
Mary Lou Busse leaves her flashlight and homeroom in the auditorium.
Diane Buttenhoff wills her lunches to the person who took them all year.
Barb Butts leaves not a thing.
Dave Bylund leaves sophomore chicks to next year's senior men.
Dick Byrne leaves his Bunsen byrner to Big R.
Kathy Campbell leaves her alarm clock to her sister, Cheryl.
Scott Campbell leaves his tennis racket with no strings attached.
Dave Carlberg leaves the barracks to Joe Lamberger.
Jeannie Carlson leaves $13 poorer—like all of us.
Mary Ann Carlson leaves her French dictionary to Mr. Dunn's sophs.
Richard Carlson leaves rug rats to Mr. Sheffer.
Peter Carlyle leaves his bench in the office.
Dick Carpenter leaves his parking place to whoever has the permit for it.
Sharon Carr leaves sandpaper the lunchroom chairs.
Mura Caverly leaves her lunch from last semester.
Tom Cedergren leaves protesting.
Lynn Chermak Takes It—It's Hers.
Janet Childs leaves her figure to Sally Carlson.
Rick Christoferson leaves his taped-together tennis shoes to the wrestlers.
Bob Chryst leaves attractively.
Renee Ciardelli leaves her Teddie troubles behind.
Sue Cizinski leaves her "Gabby Girl" award to Mr. George.
Gerry Clark leaves nothing—but would like to take someone with him.
Jane Clark leaves the profits of her stock report to Mr. Kuross.
Barb Clausen leaves Mr. Rutherford with no clothing drive chairman.
Kathy Clemens leaves an air-conditioner in 327.
Rose Cohen leaves WHS to the termites.
Debby Cohn leaves quietly and peacefully.
Carol Colby leaves her swab to Bill to clean his clarinet.
Bonnie Collins leaves seven lost fountain pens to Mr. Stitzel.
Jeff Connell leaves third-floor discipline to (guess-who).
Bill Connors leaves his hi-fi in the lunch room.
Nancy Cooke leaves her three lockers.
Henry Cooper leaves what the school gave him—nothing.
Glenn Coppersmith leaves in his car.
Pete Cottrell leaves hoping all juniors get Mr. Krause for English.
Linda Coulter leaves all her overactive monocytes to Mr. Sheffer.
Sue Craig leaves nothing.
Mike Culbert leaves three years of undone homework.
Dan Cybyske leaves broken hearts.
Chuck Dahl pushes off his throng of admirers and leaves.
Stan David leaves juniors the problems of a senior boy.
Don Davies leaves juniors to read their German out loud.

Liz Davis leaves TLR to teachers and a few lucky juniors.
Judith Davis leaves her name on the absentee list.
Caroline Dean is seen still collecting money.
Jil Dechter leaves that park bench to any junior who can fight off Jan Stitzel.
Dave Deetz leaves his curly hair.
John Denzer is seen as a millionaire (on a teacher's salary).
Jo Anne Digree leaves her notes on Communist brainwashing to the unwashed sophs.
Mary Dircks leaves zero hour to Jane Hertogs.
Janet Dombeck leaves some old peaches in somebody's lunch bag.
George Domstrand leaves Mr. Kuross a squash.
Denise Dooley duly leaves.
Hartley Drannen leaves one slightly-used typewriter ribbon.
Bob Dressel leaves empty bottles.
Laurie Duffy leaves one pair of black nylons to Mr. Blackmur.
Mary Duffy leaves four dozen cookies for the lunchroom freezer.
Rose Marie Dulkan leaves her eyebrow pencil to future shorthand students.
Jim Eastlee leaves Mr. Flugstad to Phil Drotning.
Tom Dunsworth leaves dun-in.
Sally Dunn leaves her place in the canoe sternly.
Brian Ebeling leaves the joys of chemistry to a certain "Miss W."
Larry Edlund leaves so Mr. Sheffer can recuperate.
Jon Elftmann leaves a well-worn chemistry book.
Dwight Eckholm leaves a bag of sliced golf balls to Dave Johnson.
Jeff Elavsky leaves puckered out.
Paula Ellason says, "I leave my excellent studying habits to anyone who believes that I ever had any."
Greg Ellsworth leaves Goldwater bumper stickers for all the teachers.
Sue Elstad leaves her "operating abilities" to anyone who can use them.
Judy Ericksen leaves Mr. Nelson's explosive experiments to the more courageous students.
Dan Erickson leaves a few dirty old frazzers for Mr. Sheffer.
Jim Erickson leaves still pitching.
Janice Erickson leaves commuting between Minneapolis, Grandsberg, and study hall.
Laurel Erickson leaves third year French to anyone who wants a study hall.
Mark J. Erickson leaves his originality to the Grist staff.
Mark Erickson leaves singing in the halls and impromptu plays in English to any uninhibited junior.
Peg Eustis leaves plans for the Wahitht.
Jim Fair leaves all his debts to Mr. Johnson.
Dave Fawcett leaves a competent office staff for Mr. Blackmur.
Marge Fechner leaves her sulfur beads to anyone who can string them.

Jean Felscher leaves one battered birdie.
Sandy Finstrom leaves her junior to become a senior.
Carole Fischer leaves her name on the podium for Mr. Claeson.
Lois Flesner leaves singing in study hall to any member of next year's choir.
Diane Flodin leaves an assignment notebook to her modern-problems teacher.
David Floyd leaves his brother and black cat to Mr. Sheffer.
Mike Flynn leaves nothing.
Nancy Fong leaves lunchroom study hall to anyone who can work on sticky desks and concentrate through all the commotion.
Maryanne Foote leaves a football captain to a junior girl who doesn't mind seeing her boyfriend hugging a football.
Reed Forster is seen taking his shirts to the laundry in a truck.
Clark Forsyth leaves his coin-matching-ability to third hour woodshop.
Cathy Foster leaves a year's supply of bridge tallies to next year's Wahian staff.
Cynthia Frankosky leaves eight pounds to whoever wants them.
Martha Freden is leaving at 1:20 as usual.
Christine Fredsall leaves her vocabulary notebook to Mr. Traynor.
Mary Freeman leaves her curling iron to any junior girl too lazy to set her hair at night.
Doug Frisk leaves the Frog a front row seat on next year's bench.
Randy Frisk takes "her" with him.
Dave Gaffin leaves his presidential series collection from milk cartons to Mr. Smith.
Sally Galati leaves Miss Walsh's business English literature for next year's class.
Barb Galush leaves her chewing gum—in 311.
Lee Gardner leaves her urban planning notes to those who plan urbans.
Katherine Gaspard leaves Washburn explosively.
Liz Gates leaves her parking space for some underclassman who is also too lazy to get a parking permit.
Sue Genaust leaves her nickname "Curly" to Mr. Sverdrup (who gave it to her).
Louise Geske leaves a big grin for Mrs. Kutish.
Ed Gibson leaves Mr. Krause's puns to anyone who can stand them.
Sue Gisvold leaves her "wifely ways" to Jeanne Taylor.
Kathy Glaros leaves....
Steve Glass leaves his thumb to Jim Marnie.
Ellyn Goldenberg leaves her brains to anyone who can scatter them as far as she did.
Margaret Goodwin leaves dabs of red, white, and blue oil paint.
Paul Goward leaves his homeroom presidency to Mr. Blackmur.
Ginny Grandin leaves her algebra and chemistry ability.
Don Grambsch leaves a bomb in Mr. "Wavemaker" Sheffer's room.
Gary Grave says, "Miss Stevenson can have my used bookkeeping set."

Yale Greenfield leaves Mr. Sheffer to warn next year's chemistry Neanderthals of the dangers of dissipation.
Vera Greppe leaves the snow in Minnesota.
Joyce Grill leaves her unequalled typing ability to Mr. Johnson.
Larry Grouse, Steve Kotz, and Bruce Johnson leave Faith, Hope, and Charity.
Deane Gruye leaves singing "boppa..."
Kim Gudmestad leaves his extraordinary pool shots to Buddy Smith.
Mark Gunderson leaves, still trying to remember "Whan that Aprille..."
Gary Gustafson leaves his stripes behind.
Larry Gustafson leaves one well-worn German dictionary.
Sue Hagen leaves a box of tootsie pops to Roberta Fuller.
Phyllis Hager leaves Mr. Sverdrup a bag of red licorice.
Steph Haider leaves on time—for once.
Greg Haley bequeaths his extra pounds to next year's tackle.
Harold Halladay leaves power to Mr. Blackmur.
Dale Hammerschmidt is obscene but not heard.
Ken Hande leaves the modern problem in room 201 to next year's senior class.
Holly Hannah leaves 610 uniquely alphabetized Wahian pictures.
Bob Hansen leaves a parking student lot.
Elizabeth Hansen leaves her unexcused slips.
Janet Hanson leaves teachers.
Jay Hanson leaves his rusty beater to anyone who can get the doors open.
Joyce Hanson leaves "Bearcat" to a lucky junior.
Tom Hanson leaves his attitude to Mr. Blackmur.
Gerry Harding leaves her flips across the field to next year's cheerleaders.
DeeDee Harper leaves a four-foot stack of missing assignments to anyone who thinks he can do better.
Marge Harrington leaves showing her medals.
Penny Harris leaves nil.
Carol Harrison says, "I'm leaving my three 'R's'—weeding, witing, and with-metic."
Rick Hassis leaves his girl failures.
Barb Hawkes leaves Herr Dills and his Hausaufgabe.
Duane Hayes leaves his dozen weekly reports with Mr. Stitzel.
Susan Haynes bequeaths her "This locker is not a lending library," sign to any student who has trouble with book borrowers.
George Headrick leaves Mr. Kuross a more efficient lunchroom disposal.
Sue Hedke leaves German dialogues to Frau Bruschke.
Dick Heggerston leaves his "slice" to Rich Johnson.
George Helberg leaves a black dot to Mr. Beck.
Mary Hengen leaves a sense of humor for students wishing to get ahead in a certain teacher's Spanish class.

Sharon Hegna leaves all her gum to Miss Stevenson.

Chris Heim leaves her 20 colored magic markers to an overworked junior.

Sara Helseth leaves happily and healthily.

Mary Henning leaves with a headache from wearing earphones.

Carole Hetrey leaves Mr. Stitzel's "Ladies, gentlemen, and all you others."

Dave Higgins leaves "the system" to anyone who can understand it.

Maxine Hines leaves 30 short pages of shorthand notes to Mr. Johnson.

Mary Hoas leaves her chemistry notes to anyone who can understand them.

Linda Hoban leaves all her empty ink cartridges to Nancy Curtis.

Jeff Hoffman leaves his track shoes to Mary Torvick.

Ron Holbrook leaves the class playing.

Fred Holder says, "I leave WHS better than it was."

Tom Hollister leaves three pairs of pants and two shirts to Diane Wiberg.

Marjorie Holmberg leaves a homeroom full of sophomores to Mr. Krause.

Ingvar Holmdahl leaves nothing except blood, sweat, and tears.

David Holter leaves skating.

John Hord leaves his baseball letters.

Pam Horowitz leaves her wig (on her head).

Dean Horton leaves the senior memorial.

Carol Hosfield leaves straighter than she came.

Carolyn Hosp leaves "my parking space to whoever can fit in it."

Janie Howdeshell leaves the cash in the lunchroom to Mrs. Dehlinger.

Rosemary Hultman leaves as happy to get out as she was to get in.

Bruce Hunter leaves Mr. Johnson to Ed Buhr.

Sharon Huso leaves all the point ones in her assignment notebook.

Rick Irvin leaves his chemistry book to whoever wants it.

Darlene Isaacson leaves her wide-lines paper to Miss Walsh's English classes.

Dave Jackson leaves the towel room to some gym aide next year.

Jackie Jacobsen leaves "my voice to next year's 'Carmen'."

James Jadwin leaves his books in eight different lockers.

Joanne Jasperson leaves her sympathy to undergraduates.

Kathy Jensen leaves her initials in the scene shop.

Twyla Jessen is seen leaving with a twirl.

Linda John leaves all her unused Sibley signs to next year's Politix club.

Barb Johnson leaves her originality in choosing something to leave.

Bev Johnson leaves her pie—ice cream sandwich—apple lunches to any junior who can eat them.

Carol Johnson leaves "fun" weekends to those students who are so quiet and reserved in school.

Dave Johnson answered his Grist questionnaire censorably.

Dianne Johnson leaves her fifth hour "hall monitor" post to some deserving junior.

Gayle Johnson leaves a bottle of hair dye.

Jeff Johnson leaves Mike Bailey to solve his own problems.

Joanna Johnson leaves the groove she's worn in the third-floor hall on the way to the library.

Kim Johnson is seen stamping out forest fires.

Marge Johnson leaves her yoyo's to juniors who like to play during class.

Margo Johnson leaves thinking of the College Inn Porterhouse in Chicago.

Paul Johnson leaves his superior intellectual ability.

Sharon Johnson leaves Miss Peterson's study hall to her brother.

Terry Johnson leaves his blessings on the class of '65.

Mike Johnston says, "I will leave my numerous assignments, past due, on Mr. Krause's desk, August 1."

Steve Jones leaves school as fast as he can.

Jim Jorgenson leaves an acid-burned, alcohol-saturated, ether-permeated towel to a future chemistry student.

Dee Dee Jorgenson leaves her golf pass and "terrible scores" to next year's team.

Elaine Jorgenson leaves clothes wet because of "accidents" with "polyethylene wash bottle."

Judi Joubert leaves her French notes to Mr. Dunn.

Tom Kallestad leaves his broken test tubes to Diane Stein.

Dave Kantar leaves his gum.

Bruce Kath leaves 47 pounds and four cans of Metrecal.

Kendall Kath, Esq., leaves, "Isn't that enough?"

Amy Katz leaves one set of organic chemistry notes to the unambitious.

Jan Katz leaves the privilege of eating in study hall to Tom Auhl.

James Kautz leaves his weights to anyone who can measure up.

Pat Kelly leaves her snagged nylons to the lunchroom.

Doug Kellogg leaves his brother his knowledge of each teacher's eccentricities.

Kathy Kelly leaves her books—and best wishes to whoever gets them.

Tom Kieffer leaves used tennis balls.

Sally Kilborn leaves Blue and Tried.

Linda Kindhardt kindly leaves her philosophy notebook to anyone who wants to avoid writers' cramp.

Dan Kiner leaves French in France.

Caroline King leaves lilacs to everyone.

Paul Kingbay leaves at the "Fore!"

Steve Kline leaves his Cub Scout handbook to "Ye Old White Hunter."

Myrtle Klutz leaves her virtue.

Mary Jo Knight leaves an unfinished questionnaire.

Connie Koch leaves "O" hour chemistry to any junior who can take it.

Jim Kofski leaves, collecting his works.

Tom Kollen leaves his locker to Jan with whom he has enjoyed sharing this year.

Mark Kotrich is seen as a mad scientist.

Roger Kraemer leaves Mr. Johnson, advisedly.

Carol Kupper leaves a surprise in her chemistry drawer for a lucky junior.

Lisa Lake leaves a fund to provide baskets and pulleys.

Michele Lander leaves gladly, with best wishes to Don Rundquist.

John Langhans leaves anything he didn't need.

Dick Larned leaves learned.

David Larson leaves the dirt on the walls over six feet to tall janitors.

Sandy Larson leaves a lock of her hair to her favorite teacher.

Jane Lawrence leaves her good grades to Carol Lundborg.

Jean Lawrence leaves her class notes to Dianne Cronstrom.

Joy Lawrence leaves her clarinet to David Jay.

Jean Leach leaves one slightly used orange plume.

Tim Leafs.

Michael Lee gives his chemistry notes to the next Ramsey paper sale.

Larry Leistiko leaves a bottle of "Mucki-Mucks" to Mr. Sheffer.

Marlene Lesch is seen twirling.

Barb Leykom leaves her thimble to Kathy Radke.

Gayle Lichliter leaves her used notebooks to next year's shorthand students.

Craig Lien leaves, luckily.

Bonnie Lier leaves the brunette on the door of locker 1592.

Joan Lillienfeld leaves her nose.

Karen Lindelin leaves the cigarettes, cake, and other class play props.

Jean Lindgren leaves her chemistry quiz "foxes" to a junior who doesn't want to study either.

Edith Lindquist leaves the '52 Stude to whoever can stop it.

Dan Ling is seen patenting his photographic memory.

Penny Livingston leaves 1000 pieces of assorted, unsorted music to Mr. Lydell.

Shirley Longren leaves her conscience.

Mary Lowen leaves a vacant place on the absentee list.

Lynn Lubov leaves with an acre of WHS.

Kathy Lykken leaves her membership in NHS to the junior with the least charactership, leadership, scholarship, and serviceship.

Sally Lynum leaves riding in the homecoming parade to Claudia Diessner.

Jean Magnusson leaves her last two pieces of stationery to Birdie Over.

Sue Magraw leaves honors in spades to any wild bidder on next year's Wahian staff.

Arel Malecha leaves an air conditioner for her English teacher so he can cool off.

Jim Marnie leaves Mary Jean—but not for long.

Ruth Ann Marsh takes the basketball team's helper with her.

Jean Martin leaves her overdue book slips.

Joan Martin leaves as Far from the Madding Crowd as possible.

Dave Martini leaves to all his teachers his brother Phil.

Dawn Mateffy leaves, harried.

Pat Martinson leaves a trig book with even-numbered answers written in the margin.

Sandy Mattson leaves her gum uniform to her brother.

Mike McCall leaves Mr. Carlson a glass of water on the rocks.

Laura Beth McCarthy says, "I leave my personality to anyone who can find it."

Dan McCormick is seen pinning the Crusher.

Sharon McElligott leaves waterskiing.

Merry McHale leaves her motherly advice to Chris Nyen.

Pat McHale bequeaths left-over Kool-Ade from the German birthday party.

Don McKay leaves his desk in Mr. Sverdrup's room to another seeker of truth.

Joan McLeister leaves plans for a future Senior Skip Day.

Mike McNeal leaves his cane and bum knee to the Bombers' next quarterback.

Maria McNurien leaves her fake eyelashes to Jim Kosta.

Dan Menser bequeaths to Mr. Claeson a book: One Million and One Things to Know About Everything.

Eileen Mercier leaves 6 tubes of grease paint-blemish cream to her sister Michelle.

Cathy Meyer would like to leave but she was wounded in action.

Stephanie Meyer leaves her attendance record.

Marilyn Michales wills the junk on her locker shelf that she can't reach to any junior who can reach greater heights than she.

Jeanne Mikelson leaves Washburn bare-foot and still cheering.

Evan Mikkelson leaves his presidency of the Carping Club to Jocko Honmyhr.

Diane Mitchell would like to leave a $25,000 check for the depleted library.

Kathy Moe would just like to leave.

Priscilla Moe leaves her "O" hour tardy passes to Mr. Roder.

Nancy Moore is seen playing outside the Pearly Gates.

Joe Morgan leaves in a cloud of smoke.

Donna Morrison leaves her quiet reserved ways to any sophomore coming into Mrs. Thompson's homeroom.

Bonnie Mortenson is taking everything portable with her.

Jan Muedeking leaves her Ubungens an Aufgabens to Mr. Dills.

Michelle Mullin leaves her cereal lunch to all juniors who are pretending to be on a diet.

Tim Mungaven leaves a glass of milk.

Michelle Murname leaves four dilapidated pom-poms.

Jacquelyn Murphy leaves her habitual absence to Pat and John Murphy.

Dick Murphy would like to leave a student parking lot.

Mary Muzetras leaves her paint rags to her sister Mugs.

Susan Nash leaves the boys from 52nd and Bloomington.

Laurie Nathenson leaves all the pounds she lost, regained, and relost.

Cindy Neerland leaves her gypsy bells to Mr. Blackmur.

Cheryl Nelson leaves a spool of thread and a needle to Nancy Broun.

Grant Nelson leaves his top row seat in 325.

Gregg Nelson leaves the same as he came.

Nancy Nelson leave all the unsold A.F.S. Ball tickets to Anne Schroeder.

Van Nelson leaves his cross-country, mile, and 880 records to the school.

Yvonne Nelson leaves 324 to the Unaware.

Mary Jane Newham leaves "tons and tons of goodwill."

Don Nicholson leaves it all to his sister.

Dan Nordburg plans to leave upon graduation.

Sue Nordland leaves nordily.

Debbie Norgren leaves the Doublemint commercial to the Cundy twins.

Diane Norgren leaves an empty showcase for tailoring students.

Arne Nyen leaves one portrait of W. C. Fields clad in a tutu.

Pat O'Daugherty leaves his sanity to his favorite teacher in 324.

Bob Oftos leaves his assignment notebook in the same room.

Paul Odlag can't leave anything because he hasn't got anything left.

Jeanine Odoms wills Mr. Johnson her top-knot and rats.

Toni Okada leaves all her "A's to the alphabet.

Lynne Olson says she "leaves trying to forget my performance at the Senior banquet."

Nikki Olson bequeaths a burned cake to Mrs. Keegan.

Steve O'Neill leaves his traveling chairs in Miss Dowling's English class.

Ron Opsahl offers his sympathy to any cheerleaders who may have part-time jobs.

Nadine Ornborg leaves a slightly-used clothespin.

Lynne Osborne leaves "Memories!"

Gary Ott leaves the ideas to Cary Brown if he can find the wheels to carry them out.

Carol Pajerski leaves WHS to her sisters Rita, Pat, and Julie.

Sherrill Palmer leaves the Ambassador to Chuck Anderson, Class of '65.

Terry Palmquist leaves with new glasses.

Louise Parten leaves her nickname "Proxy" to any natural blond in the junior class.

Jane Partridge would like to leave Washburn...!

Tom Pavek is seen at the Indianapolis 500.

Jim Pence says, "I'll leave my one-track mind to any one who likes a dirt track."

Laurie Perkins leaves blankly (her questionnaire).

Dick Perry leaves his grades from Mr. Lydell with fondest thoughts.

Mike Perry would like to leave Washburn improved.

Shirley Peshina leaves lots of carbon paper for those manuscript forms.

Dan Peterson leaves in friendship with Mr. Blackmur.

Mark Peterson leaves his good memories of WHS (few and far between).

Penny Peterson leaves her bottle of peroxide to Cathy Bell.

Sandy Peterson leaves Miss Walsh and "her impatience."

Kassandra Polymeros leaves three notebooks of organic chemistry to a deserving junior.

Margaret Ponsford leaves her typing speed to Miss Stevenson to laugh over.

Dick Postell leaves his athletic ability and physical form.

Julie Potter leaves the gas jet on in the chemistry room.

Brent Primus leaves Mr. Dornfeld and Miss Walsh.

Carol Priest leaves the only locker in the school with a picture window.

Bill Pritchard leaves his ulcers to a junior who worries, too.

Cathy Putnam doesn't know where to leave her orange-and-blue tank suit.

Joel Radjenovich leaves Miss Peterson's study hall far behind him.

Betsy Ragan promises the answers to literature questions 1-653 to a rich junior.

Arlymae Rand leaves her pass to leave everyday at lunch.

Sue Reardon leaves all the dates Mr. Kuross never got her—sadly.

Dave Rissi leaves his table and chair in Miss Dowling's room.

Bill Roberts leaves his modern problems assignment notebook to whoever wants it.

Elaine Rochlin leaves her conscientiousness.

Sharon Rodley leaves to be a nurse.

Donna Rognlie leaves pep pills to next year's pep club.

Connie Rondeau wills her locker and switchboard to Kathy Fortman.

Richard Roome leaves his cheerleading uniform—in the wash.

Kerry Rosen leaves his worn-out deck of marked cards to Brian Love.

Grace Ross is seen campaigning for Barry every time he runs.

Gail Rotegard leaves a speech about undertakers to Mr. Rogers, Max, and Claudia.

Ann Rotzel leaves "the original mouth" to Mr. Rogers.

Steve Runkel leaves the school in one piece.

What makes Charlie Running?

Barb Sabasko leaves a bottle of No-Doz to any student who needs it.

Gary Sackrider leaves some "busy-work" business law papers to Mr. Johnson.

Paul Sand leaves Edina's practice range to Brian Love.

Sue Sandland leaves posturized.

Dave Satre gives any liberal tendencies he has back to Mr. Carlson.

Duane Sarazin leaves the grubby war-surplus speakers the choir was given.

Joy Satre leaves Philandrews to Sara.

John Saunders leaves his safe driver pledge.

Patty Sawyer leaves her grammar book and the maximum essentials to Mr. Blackmur.

Judy Scarlett leaves her Blush-On.
Henry Schaeffer is...just...leaving.
 And J. Craig Scherf leaves—zut alors!
Carol Schlesinger leaves her psychology book to a junior who isn't adjusted yet.
Bob Schlosser leaves WHS to his little sister, Judy—a sophomore next year.
Dick Schmidt leaves his bomb that failed to go off.
Harry J. Schmitz leave his well-used briefcase with Mr. Dills.
Dave Schmitz gives Miss Woodbeck all his overdue books.
Fred Schroeder leaves all the poplar trees to an interested lumber company.
Bill Schwalbe leaves the three broken projectors.
Sharon Schweppe leaves Mr. Nelson a big supply of yeast for his moonshine.
Kathy Scott is seen as an organic chemist.
Trish Seidell leaves her excellent study habits to Linda Schuck.
Bev Seim leaves her room deodorizer for the chemistry labs.
Joel Seltz leaves his fabulous wrestling ability to Stu Braman.
David Shama leaves a monument to Mr. Johnson in the equipment room.
Mike Shannon leaves a drawer lock to Mr. Flugstad.
Shelia Shannon leaves with Pete on the back of her bike.
Jim Shearer leaves his swimming suit to the girl's swimming team.
Dave Sherrill bequeaths his megaphone to Miss Thurston.
Jim Shosted leaves ski experience and crutches to the '64-'65 team.
Lois Sickler leaves Mr. Carlson and his Hush-Puppies.
Dick Sigurdson has a one-way bus ticket for Mr. Claeson to the Ozarks.
Dave Sinclair leaves his golden sense of humor.
Gaye Singley leaves her Pennsylvania accent to drive Mr. Krause crazy.
Robert Sirany leaves 5000 squirt guns and a Green Stamp to Mr. Flugstad.
Steve Skarr leaves trinitrotoluence—forever.
 And Barb Skow leaves—any minute.
Les Smiley leaves very little yellow paper for the next NHS induction.
Jean Smith leaves her "No" votes to anyone hard-headed enough to use them.
Linda Smith leaves a package of bunion pads to Mr. Sverdrup.
Nancy Smith leaves tickets and more tickets to the AFS committee.
Jane Smolak leaves 10,000 pencils with chains for the new dream library.
Bob Snouffer exits, stage right, running all the way.
Kathy Snow leaves her diet pills.
Sylvia Spain leaves her nails to the wood shop.
Jim Spanyers leaves as fast as usual.
Sandra Spell leaves the lunchroom food to anyone who lacks taste buds.
Guy Somers leaves a roll of tape for Mr. Johnson.
Bill Stanley leaves the mystery of Hughie Glass to Mr. Sverdrup's next year class.
Chris Stanton leaves a guaranteed unused athletic insurance policy.

Jan Staubly leaves her cheese—not for the mice, but the men.
Tom Steffens leaves carbon paper for Mr. Blackmur.
Darrell Steiner leaves his ulcer.
Pete Stenberg leaves the school all the stuff he's "lifted from it."
Gordy Stephan leaves (censored) to Mike Bailey.
Betsie Stewart leaves a box of Kleenex to Mr. Ohland's future victims.
Jan Stitzel leaves his sugar cane song.
Karen Strand leaves the presidency of NHSR to Darrell Shannon.
Sharon Strauman leaves her make-up, hairspray, and gum to Mr. Johnson.
Sue Stuart leaves her "new" hair to Mr. Lydell and Mr. Johnson.
Linda Suhl leaves a molehill to Mr. Dills so he can make a mountain out of it.
Dick Sutter leaves running.
Dick Sutton leaves some newer jokes to Mr. Sheffer.
Evie Swan leaves her contacts and her contacts.
Mary Ann Swanson is seen asking Miss Walsh "Is that clear?"
Max Swanson leaves a shoe for Mr. Pajari.
Ray Swanson leaves his college math to Mrs. Kutish.
Mike Swartz leaves all his undone Blackmur homework to Jimmy Asbury.
Dave Swedin disowns Washburn.
Jack Sweet wishes "best of luck to all future Washburn debaters."
Dave Swenson leaves that lav pass to Mr. Flugstad.
Donna Swenson leaves her bookkeeping projects to Miss Stevenson.
John Swenson leaves Dave Martini's tennis in Mrs. Kutish's safe-keeping.
Pat Taillefer gives Mr. Johnson a bottle of Technique to cover the grey hair her shorthand class gave him.
Katha Tasa leaves a gas mask for future chemistry students.
Barb Theim leaves the preservation of Washburn morals to the Puritans in the class of '65.
David Thomas leaves a dictionary in 219.
Randy Thompson leaves with a tardy pass.
John Tietz leaves bows and flippers to Bob Shutes.
Kirby Titus leaves a bottle of lemon juice (concentrated) and a copy of Robert's Rules of Order.
Linda Tripp leaves her inorganic chemistry notes to anyone who can organize them.
Kay Troedsson leaves a batch of synthetic chocolate chip cookies made in the chemistry lab to Mr. Sheffer.
Liz Tucker leaves a jar of pickles to Mr. Dills.
Myron Turnbull leaves his senior Grist questionnaire.
Jo Ann Tysdal leaves her alarm clock (set for 7:15) to her sister.
Norton Twite leaves to Mike Theim the empty cans in his trunk.
Mike Valentine leaves his Stude to anyone who can drive it.

Paige Van Vorst leaves his horn.
Judy Vicars bequeaths a Girl Scout jack-knife to any green junior.
Bruce Walen leaves again.
Jim Walfred leaves Mr. Flugstad one book of Green Stamps.
Pat Wallin leaves one lost notebook to any junior who finds it.
John Waterhouse would like to leave a more effective system of education.
Linda Weibel leaves a good drive down the green.
Melanie Weisskopf leaves her little animal pins to the biology department to be dissected.
Bob Webb leaves spinning.
Paul Welschinger leaves all of his track records to Mr. Emerson.
Priscilla Westphal leaves her chemistry tests.
Barb Whitney says, "I'm just leaving."
Julie Williams leaves an autographed letter from Igor Stravinsky to Mr. Lydell.
Marcia Willis distributes her Brownie Points among the Class of '65.
Kathy Wilson leaves a "Flea fly!"
Marni Wilson leaves her place on the absence list.
Ginny Wirt leaves the dirty, old, Poplars dummy to Mrs. Bohmbach.
Judy Wiste leaves her brother Bill to Washburn—to have for keeps.
Eva Wittles leaves an amino compound named urea to up-and-coming chemistry students.
Diana Wold leaves her blessings for those who might not need them.
Mary Wood leaves her sister to next year's posture contest.
Tom Worthing leaves his braces to anyone with a used erector set.
Mary Ann Wray leaves Taunee an island in the sun.
Steve Youngdahl leaves his parking space at Erickson's to whoever can find it.
Bob Evans neglected to turn in his questionnaire.
Phyllis Leider leaves swimming.
Dale Hammerschmidt leaves and it's all Jeanne Taylor's fault.
Sara Bey and Allen Andrews leave the printer's because they have to study for their finals.

The Pursuit of Life Takes Many Paths

AUGSBURY COLLEGE

David Satre

AUGSBURG COLLEGE

Mike Anderson, Brian Bakk, Mary Bunce, Don Cybyske, Jo Ann Digree, Jim Erickson, Doug Frisk, Kim Gudmestad, Gail Johnson, Craig Lien, Don McKay, Jeanne Mikelson, Steve Runkel

AUGUSTANA COLLEGE

Yvonne Nelson

BACONE COLLEGE

Margaret Goodwin

BARNARD COLLEGE

Cathy Foster

BEMIDJI STATE COLLEGE

Dave Bylund, Tom Dunsworth, Clark Forsyth, Mike McCall, Dan Peterson, Bob Snouffer

BETHEL COLLEGE

Tara Belshe, Bob Chryst

BROWN INSTITUTE

Bill Roberts

BUENA VISTA COLLEGE

Dave Thomas

CARLETON COLLEGE

Rose Cohen, Larry Grouse, Joanna Johnson, Sue Magraw

COE COLLEGE

Carol Burkhardt

COLGATE UNIVERSITY

Randy Frisk, Gordy Stephan

COLLEGE OF ST. CATHERINE

Sue Hagen

COLLEGE OF ST. THOMAS

John Arkell, Gerry Clark, Jeff Connell, Mike Flynn

COLORADO STATE COLLEGE

Jim Spanyers

CONCORDIA COLLEGE

Diane Buitenhoff, Sharon Schweppe

COYNE ELECTRONICS INSTITUTE

Dave Schultz

DARTMOUTH COLLEGE

Bruce Campbell

DRAKE UNIVERSITY

Mary Benson, Ann Bennion, Jane Clark, Martha Freden, Chris Heim, Diane Mitchell, Ann Rotzel, Ginny Wirt

DUNWOODY INSTITUTE

Dan Nordberg, Bob Schlosser

GENERAL MOTORS INSTITUTE

Chuck Dahl

GUSTAVUS ADOLPHUS

Steve Anderson, Laurel Erickson, Sue Gisvold, Barb Hawkes, Jean Magnusson, Steve O'Neill, Sharon Rodley, Paul Sand, Steve Youngdahl

HAMLIN UNIVERSITY

Priscilla Mae

HASTINGS COLLEGE

Betsy Ragan

HUMBOLDT INSTITUTE

Roger Kraemer

KALAMAZOO COLLEGE

Linda John

KENYON COLLEGE

Yale Greenfield

LAWRENCE COLLEGE

Dave Fawcett, Marge Fechner, Brent Primus, Linda Weibel

LUTHER COLLEGE

Beverly Johnson

MACALESTER COLLEGE

Dave Deetz, Judy Erickson, Maryanne Foote, Pam Horowitz, Jim Jorgenson, Jan Katz, Lisa Lake, Kathy Lykken, Pat Martinson, Dan Menser, Lynne Olson, Sue Sandland, Joy Satre, Trish Seidel, Max Swanson, John Swenson.

MacPHAIL SCHOOL OF MUSIC

Joy Lawrence

MANKATO STATE COLLEGE

Gayette Addison, Terry Anderson, Lou Anquist, Bruce Bachman, Perry Barsten, Becky Beetsch, Sandy Berg, Don Davis, Mary Ann Brown, Donna Bannicksen, Phyllis Hager, Mary Hooas, Tom Hollister, Marge Johnson, Dave Kantar, Bruce Kath, Paul Kingbay, Mary Jo Knight, Jane Lawrence, Barb Leykom, Peggy Lindquist, Jan Muedeking, Cindy Neerland, Arne Nyen, Dick Sigurdson, Linda Suhl, Norton Twite, Paul Welschinger, Priscilla Westphal

UNIVERSITY OF ERLANGEN, GERMANY

Lois Flesner

UNIVERSITY OF IOWA

Pete Stenberg

UNIVERSITY OF MINNESOTA

David Ackerman, Chuck Agan, Chuck Anderson, Dale Anderson, Jackie Anderson, Pam Anderson, Dick Anderson, Jeff Arnold, John Aronson, Todd Bachman, Joyce Baldwin, Rick Ballantine, Yana Bariss, Bruce Barker, Bob Barnett, Doug Barthel, Ken Beadell, Dave Beenken, Karen Berg, Brian Bergin, Jim Berlin, Judy Bjerke, Marty Bjorkland, Mike Boen.

Allison Boldric, Tom Briedall, Alan Bevitz, Bev Brown, Marsha Bruce, Fran Bruzek, Dick Byrne, Dave Carlberg, Jeanine Carlson, Mary Ann Carlson, Pete Carlyle, Dick Carpenter, Sharon Carr, Mura Caverly, Tom Cedergren, Howard Chatfield, Rick Christofer-son, Carol Colby, Bonnie Collins, Bill Connors, Henry

Cooper, Pete Cottrell, Mike Culbert.

Stan David, Liz Davis, Mary Dircks, George Domstrand, Denise Dooley, Hartley Drannen, Laurie Duffy, Brian Ebling, Larry Edlund, Dwight Eckholm, Jon Elftmann, Greg Elsworth, Sue Elstad, Dan Erickson, Mark Erickson, Mark J. Erickson, Jim Fair, Jean Fel-scher, Sandy Finstrom, Carole Fischer, Diane Flodin, Nancy Fong, Chris Fredsall.

Mary Freeman, Dave Gaffin, Lee Gardner, Kathy Gaspard, Sue Genoust, Ed Gibson, Kathy Glaras, Ellyn din, Dean Gruye, Gary Gustafson, Larry Gustafson, Stephanie Haider, Greg Haley, Bob Hansen, Jay Han-son, Tom Hanson, Lynn Harper, Penny Harris, Carol Harrison, George Headrick, Dick Heggerston.

Sharon Hegna, George Helberg, Mary Henning, Dave Higgins, Maxine Hines, Ron Holbrook, Fred Holder, Ingar Holmdahl, Dean Horton, Carol Hosfield, Caro-lyn Hosp, Bruce Hunter, Rick Irvin, Dave Jackson, Kathy Jensen, Barb Johnson, Bruce Johnson, Carol Johnson, Diane Johnson, Jeff Johnson, Margo Johnson, Terry Johnson.

Mike Johnston, Diane Jorgenson, Elaine Jorgenson, Judi Joubert, Tom Kallestad, Doug Kellogg, Tom Kieffer, Sally Kilborn, Linda Kindhart, Steve Kline, Connie Koch, Tom Koven, Carol Tupper, Michele Lan-der, John Langhans, David Larson, Sandy Larson, Jean Lawrence, Jean Leach, Tim Leaf, Michael Lee, Phyllis Leidner, Larry Leistiko.

Gayle Lichliter, Joan Lilienfield, Jean Lindgren, Dan Ling, Shirley Longren, Lynn Lybov, Sally Lynum, Jim Marnie, Ruth Ann Marsh, Dave Martini, Sharon Mc-Eligott, Pat McHale, Joan McLeister, Mike McNeal, Marion McNurlen, Cathy Meyer, Marilyn Michaels, Joe Morgan, Nancy Moore, Tim Mungaven, Mary Muze-tras, Susan Nash, Laurie Nathenson, Cheryl Nelson.

Gregg Nelson, Van Nelson, Mary Jane Newham, Don Nicholson, Sue Nordland, Debbie Norgren, Diane Norgren, Bob Oftos, Toni Okada, Ron Opsahl, Lynne Osborne, Gary Ott, Sherrill Palmer, Terry Palmquist, Jane Partridge, Laurie Perkins, Dick Perry, Mike Perry, Shirley Peshina, Mark Peterson, Penny Peterson, Margaret Pansford, Julie Potter, Carol Priest, Bill Pritchard, Sue Reardon, Dave Rissi, Donna Rognlie, Richard Roome, Kerry Rosen, Grace Ross, Barb Sa-basko, Gary Sackrider, Duane Sarazin, John Saunders, Henry Schaeffer, J. Craig Scherf, Rick Schmidt, Harry Schmitz, Joel Seltz, Dave Shama, Sheila Shannon.

James Shearer, Dave Sherrill, Jim Shosted, Lois Sickler, Dave Sinclair, Bob Sirany, Steve Skaar, Barb Skaw, Linda Smith, Jean Smith, Jane Smolak, Kathy Snow, Guy Somers, Sandra Spell, Bill Stanley, Jan Stauby, Tom Steffens, Darrel Steiner, Jack Sweet, Darrell Steiner, Karen Strand, Sue Stuart, Dick Sutter, Dick Sutton, Ray Swanson, Mike Swartz.

Dave Swenson, Kathy Tasa, Kirby Titus, Linda Tripp, Kay Troedsson, Liz Tucker, Myron Turnbull, Paige Van Vorst, Bruce Walen, Jim Walfred, John Water-house, Melanie Weisskopf, Barb Whitney, Julie Wil-liams, Marcia Willis, Kathy Wilson, Marni Wilson, Judy Wiste, Eva Wittles, Diana Wolf, Mary Wood, Tom Worthing, Mary Ann Wray.

MINNEAPOLIS SCHOOL OF ART

Barb Butts, Barb Galush, Tom Pavek

MINNESOTA SCHOOL OF BUSINESS

Bonny Anderson, Mary Jane Burdorf, Pat Kelly, Judy Scarlett, Pat Taillefer

MISSOURI SCHOOL OF MINES AND METALLURGY

Harold Halladay

MONTANA STATE COLLEGE

Paula Eliason

MOORHEAD STATE COLLEGE

Louise Parten

MOUNT HOLYOKE COLLEGE

Holly Hannah, Michelle Mullin, Cathy Putnam

NORTHWESTERN UNIVERSITY

Barbara Adams, Allan Andrews, Nancy Nelson

PITTSBURGH INSTITUTE OF AERONAUTICS

Mark Benson

PRINCETON UNIVERSITY

Ken Hande

PRINCIPIA COLLEGE

Caroline Dean

RADCLIFFE COLLEGE

Gail Rotegard

REED COLLEGE

Sarah Hurwicz

RIVER FALLS STATE COLLEGE

Randi Thompson

ST. CLOUD STATE COLLEGE

Phyllis Ackerman, Linda Coulter, Sue Craig, John Denzer, David Floyd, Reed Forster, Janet Hanson, Sue Hedke, Mary Hengen, Marge Holmberg, John Hord, Jim Kautz, Jan Stitzel, Mike Shannon

ST. JOHN'S UNIVERSITY

Pat O'Daugherty

ST. MARY'S COLLEGE

Don Benden

ST. OLAF COLLEGE

Tom Anderson, Marge Eustis, Kathy Flohr, Nadine Ornborg, Kathy Scott, Jo Ann Tysdal

SALVATION ARMY SCHOOL

Dick Larned

SIMPSON COLLEGE

Gaye Singley

SKIDMORE COLLEGE

Janet Childs

STANFORD UNIVERSITY

Steve Katz, Jim Pence

SULLINS COLLEGE

Mary Duffy

SWARTHMORE COLLEGE

Barb Theim

UNION COLLEGE

Grant Nelson

UNIVERSITY OF ARIZONA

Jil Dechter, Bonnie Lier, Kassie Polymeros, Betsy Stewart

UNIVERSITY OF COLORADO

Liz Gates, Les Smiley

UNIVERSITY OF DENVER

Scott Campbell

UNIVERSITY OF NATAL, DURBAN

Chris Stanton

UNIVERSITY OF PUDGET SOUND

Nancy Smith

UNIVERSITY OF WISCONSIN

Debbie Cohn, Steve Glass, Amy Katz, Dan Kiner, John Tietz

VASSAR COLLEGE

Caroline King

VOCATIONAL

Glenn Coppersmith, Dave Johnson

WARTBURG COLLEGE

Dick Carlson

WELLS COLLEGE

Olive Evenson

WHEATON COLLEGE

Ross Anderson

YALE UNIVERSITY

Fred Schroeder

BEAUTY SCHOOL

Betsy Hansen

BUSINESS COLLEGE

Janice Erickson, Marlene Lesch, Jean Martin, Joan Martin, Merry McHale, Donna Morrison, Nikki Olson

NURSING SCHOOL

Judy Bon, Kathy Campbell, Judie Davis, Louise Geske, Karen Lindelin, Penny Livingston, Eileen Mercier, Arel Malecha, Arlymae Rand, Bev Seim, Sylvia Spain, Evelyn Swan.

ARMED SERVICES

Gary Grave, Mark Gunderson, Jeff Hoffman, Steve Jones, Dan McCormick, Bonnie Mortenson, Dick Postell, Joe Radjenovich.

WORK

Dareen Anderson, Dennis Ask, Mary Lou Busse, Renee Ciardelli, Sue Cizinski, Barb Clausen, Jim Eastlee, Janet Dombeck, Rose Dulan, Sally Galati, Joyce Grill, Gerry Harding, Joyce Hanson, Marge Harrington, Carole Hetrey, Linda Hoban, Janie Howdeshell, Dar-lene Isaacson, Twyla Jessen, James Jadwin, Joanne Jaspersen, Kim Johnson, Lora Beth McCarthy, Stephanie Meyer, Evon Mikkelsen, Kathy Moe, Jacquelyn Mur-phy, Jeanine Odoms, Paul Odlaug, Carol Pajerski, Sandy Peterson, Connie Rondeau, Charles Running, Patty Sawyer, Carol Schlesinger, Sharon Strauman, Mary Ann Swanson, Dave Swedin, Donna Swenson, Mike Valentine, Pat Wallin.